offense], during the first year of the term of supervised release (provided, however, that a condition set forth in § 3563(b)(10) shall be imposed only for a violation of a condition of supervised release in accordance with § 3583(e)(2) and only when facilities are available) for the following period [REDACTED].

- ☐ (11) (community confinement): you shall reside at, or participate in the program of a community corrections facility (including a facility maintained or under contract to the Bureau of Prisons) for all or part of the term of supervised release, for a period of [REDACTED] months.
- ☐ (12) you shall work in community service for [REDACTED] hours as directed by a probation officer.
- ☐ (13) you shall reside in the following place or area: [REDACTED], or refrain from residing in a specified place or area: [REDACTED].
- ☒ (14) you shall remain within the jurisdiction where you are being supervised, unless granted permission to leave by the court or a probation officer.
- ☒ (15) you shall report to a probation officer as directed by the court or a probation officer.
- ☒ (16) ☒ you shall permit a probation officer to visit you ☒ at any reasonable time or ☐ as specified:
☒ at home ☒ at work ☒ at school ☒ at a community service location
☒ other reasonable location specified by a probation officer
- ☒ you shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer.

- ☐ (19) (home confinement): you shall remain at your place of residence for a total of [REDACTED] months during nonworking hours. [This condition may be imposed only as an alternative to incarceration.]
- ☐ Compliance with this condition shall be monitored by telephonic or electronic signaling devices (the selection of which shall be determined by a probation officer). Electronic monitoring shall ordinarily be used in connection with home detention as it provides continuous monitoring of your whereabouts. Voice identification may be used in lieu of electronic monitoring to monitor home confinement and provides for random monitoring of your whereabouts. If the offender is unable to wear an electronic monitoring device due to health or medical reasons, it is recommended that home confinement with voice identification be ordered, which will provide for random checks on your whereabouts. Home detention with electronic monitoring or voice identification is not deemed appropriate and cannot be effectively administered in cases in which the offender has no bona fide residence, has a history of violent behavior, serious mental health problems, or substance abuse; has pending criminal charges elsewhere; requires frequent travel inside or outside the district; or is required to work more than 60 hours per week.
- ☐ You shall pay the cost of electronic monitoring or voice identification at the daily contractual rate, if you are financially able to do so.
- ☐ The Court waives the electronic/location monitoring component of this condition.
- ☐ (20) you shall comply with the terms of any court order or order of an administrative process pursuant to the law of a State, the District of Columbia, or any other possession or territory of the United States, requiring payments by you for the support and maintenance of a child or of a child and the parent with whom the child is living.

If ordered deported, you shall not reenter the United States without obtaining, in advance, the express written consent of the Attorney General or the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security.
- ☒ (22) you shall satisfy such other special conditions as ordered below.
- ☐ (23) (if required to register under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act) you shall submit at any time, with or without a warrant, to a search of your person and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects, by any law enforcement or probation officer having reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervised release or unlawful conduct by you, and by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions (see special conditions section).

- ☐ (8) you shall provide documentation to the IRS and pay taxes as required by law.
- ☐ (9) you shall participate in a sex offender treatment program. The specific program and provider will be determined by a probation officer.  - ☐ You shall not, without the approval of a probation officer and treatment provider, engage in activities that will put you in unsupervised private contact with any person under the age of 18, or visit locations where children regularly congregate (e.g., locations specified in the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act.)
 - ☐ This condition does not apply to your family members: [REDACTED] [Names]
 - ☐ Your employment shall be restricted to the district and division where you reside or are supervised, unless approval is granted by a probation officer. Prior to accepting any form of employment you shall seek the approval of a probation officer, in order to allow the probation officer the opportunity to assess the level of risk to the community you will pose if employed in a particular capacity. You shall not participate in any volunteer activity that may cause you to come into direct contact with children except under circumstances approved in advance by a probation officer and treatment provider.
 - ☐ You shall provide the probation officer with copies of your telephone bills, all credit card statements/receipts, and any other financial information requested.
 - ☐ You shall comply with all state and local laws pertaining to convicted sex offenders, including such laws that impose restrictions beyond those set forth in this order.

Such notification could include advising the person about your record of arrests and convictions and substance use.
